The Department of Veterans Affairs cannot act as a collection agency nor attempt to determine the validity of contested debts. However, we do expect our employees to pay their just debts.

The employee referred to in your letter has been so informed. Also, we have asked this employee to make an agreement with you for the payment of any established obligation, or to discuss with you any differences as to validity or amount not already made known to you.

We trust this will result in a satisfactory settlement.

Sincerely yours,
