Encl: (1) Inactive Direct Appointment Programs

1. Purpose. To provide guidance for the inactive direct appointment program.

2. Background. The inactive direct appointment program was established to access qualified civilian and enlisted reserve applicants directly into the Naval Reserve Officer programs. Appointments are limited to general unrestricted line (1105L and 1105W only), restricted line and staff corps designators. The applicant's education and training must have direct applicability to the appropriate designator. The general professional standards are identical to those applied to active duty accessions. Quotas are assigned to fill Selected Reserve vacancies which cannot be filled from the veteran manpower pool. This program is not intended to access prior military officers.

3. Authority. Qualified applicants will be appointed in the Naval Reserve (for inactive duty) under the provisions of law, reference (a), and Secretary of the Navy policy for the specific designator under the applicable appointment instruction, references (b) through (j). Authority to recruit is based on the program authorizations listed as enclosure (1).

4. Program Guidance. Recruiting goals for inactive direct appointment accessions will be promulgated by Commander, Naval Reserve Force (COMNAVRESFOR). COMNAVRESFOR will recruit for direct commissions only those applicants who:

- meet the educational and experience requirements of the program authorizations, and
- are available to be mobilized by virtue of being eligible for assignment to a Selected Reserve mobilization billet.

Members of Congress, federal political appointees, elected state and local government officials, and federal career Senior Executive Service (SES) employees may not be tendered an original direct appointment without prior approval of the Secretary of the Navy. During the direct commission application process, the specific question of availability of the applicant at mobilization must be addressed. Commander, Navy Recruiting Command (CNRC) will process completed applications through professional selections and appointments. Applications for Reserve officer's direct appointments will be processed with the same priority as applications for Regular and Reserve officer's active duty appointments. If selected for appointment, applicants will be offered a Reserve commission and must execute an Acceptance and Oath of Office (A&O) and a Ready Reserve Agreement prior to receiving orders to a Selected Reserve billet. Officers appointed under the direct appointment program will be required to attend the inactive direct appointment school in Pensacola, Florida, within one year of appointment, unless another school is specified in the program authorization. (For example, Supply Corps officers are indoctrinated at the Naval Supply Corps School, Athens, GA). After completion of the inactive direct appointment school, officers will be required to serve a minimum of 3 years in designator before making any request for designator change or transfer to another service.

5. Responsibility

a. The Deputy Chief of Naval Operations (Manpower, Personnel, and Training) will:

(1) Maintain inactive direct appointment program authorizations (PAs) and coordinate changes with designator sponsors. (COG: OP-13)

(2) Administer policy for waiver of accession standards. (COG: OP-13)

b. Director of Naval Reserve will monitor recruiting goals and accessions for inactive direct appointments.

c. Commander, Navy Recruiting Command (CNRC) will:

(1) Consider for direct commission only those applicants who have the necessary education and/or experience and who, if required, are readily available as a mobilization asset.

(2) Direct and monitor Selection Boards and appointments to ensure the most expeditious accession for all applicants. (COG: CNRC-30)

d. Commander, Naval Reserve Force (CNRF) will:

(1) Promulgate annual recruiting goals to CNO (OP-095) based on Selected Reserve requirements. (COG: COMNAVRESFOR Code 21)

(2) Ensure that only those applicants meeting the necessary educational/experience and mobilization availability requirements are considered and forwarded to CNRC for direct appointment commissions.

(3) Monitor the application process to ensure the expeditious accession of applicants.

(4) Notify the Office of the Secretary of the Navy when "High Visibility" candidates are being considered for direct appointments for Naval Reserve commissions. Such candidates will include high-name-recognition individuals and key government figures.

(5) Recruit prospects for direct appointment (except for student programs) and deliver completed applications to CNRC. (COG: COMNAVRESFOR Code 09)

(6) Affiliate direct commission officers into Selected Reserve billets and obligate funds for their initial annual active duty for training (ACDUTRA) for indoctrination within one year of appointments.

(7) Incorporate Program Authorization appointment criteria into the Recruiting Manual and appropriate instructions. (COG: COMNAVRESFOR Code 09)

e. Chief of Naval Education and Training (CNET) will coordinate initial indoctrination training curricula with resource sponsors.
