

Purpose of This Package

Use this package to figure and pay your estimated tax. If you are not required to make estimated tax payments for 1999, you may discard this package. But before you do so, be sure to consider whether you need to use the Form 1040-V also included in this package (explained below).

Estimated tax is the method used to pay tax on income that is not subject to withholding (for example, earnings from self-employment, interest, dividends, rents, alimony, etc.). In addition, if you do not elect voluntary withholding, you should make estimated tax payments on unemployment compensation and the taxable part of your social security benefits. See the 1998 instructions for your tax return for more details on income that is taxable.

The estimated tax worksheet on page 4 will help you figure the correct amount to pay. The payment vouchers in this package are for crediting your estimated tax payments to your account correctly. Use the Record of Estimated Tax Payments on page 5 to keep track of the payments you have made and the number and amount of your remaining payments.

The payment vouchers are preprinted with your name, address, and social security number. If your name or social security number is not correct, please make the needed changes on the vouchers. Cross out the name and social security number of a deceased or divorced spouse.

DO NOT use the vouchers in this package to notify the IRS of a change of address. If you have a new address, complete Form 8822, Change of Address, and send it to the Internal Revenue Service Center at the address shown in the Form 8822 instructions. The service center will update your record and send you new preprinted payment vouchers.

Note: Continue to use your old preprinted payment vouchers to make payments of estimated tax until you receive the new vouchers. Please do not correct the address on the old vouchers.

Form 1040-V Included in This Package

We have included Form 1040-V, Payment Voucher, and its instructions with your estimated tax vouchers. Please use Form 1040-V when sending in your payment of any balance due on line 68 of your 1998 Form 1040. However, if you do not have a balance due on your 1998 Form 1040 or you file Form 1040A, you should discard the Form 1040-V in this package.

Caution: Do not use Form 1040-V to make any 1999 estimated tax payments. Payments made with Form 1040-V will be credited only to your 1998 tax.

Who Must Make Estimated Tax Payments

Generally, you must make estimated tax payments if you expect to owe at least $1,000 in tax for 1999 (after subtracting your withholding and credits) and you expect your withholding and credits to be less than the smaller of:

1. 90% of the tax shown on your 1999 tax return, or
2. The tax shown on your 1998 tax return (105% of that amount if you are not a farmer or a fisherman and the adjusted gross income shown on the return is more than $150,000 or, if married filing separately for 1999, more than $75,000).

However, if you did not file a 1998 tax return or that return did not cover all 12 months, item 2 does not apply.

For this purpose, include household employment taxes (before subtracting advance EIC payments made to your employee(s)) when figuring the tax shown on your tax return, if either of the following is true.

- You will have Federal income tax withheld from wages, pensions, annuities, gambling winnings, or other income, or

- You would be required to make estimated tax payments to avoid a penalty even if you did not include household employment taxes when figuring your estimated tax.

Exception. You do not have to pay estimated tax if you were a U.S. citizen or resident alien for all of 1998 and you had no tax liability for the full 12-month 1998 tax year.

The estimated tax rules apply to:

- U.S. citizens and residents,
- Residents of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and American Samoa, and
- Nonresident aliens (use Form 1040-ES (NR)).

If you also receive salaries and wages, you may be able to avoid having to make estimated tax payments by asking your employer to take more tax out of your earnings. To do this, file a new Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, with your employer.

You can also choose to have Federal income tax withheld from certain government payments. For details, see Form W-4V, Voluntary Withholding Request.

Caution: You may not make joint estimated tax payments if you or your spouse is a nonresident alien, you are separated under a decree of divorce or separate maintenance, or you and your spouse have different tax years.

Tax Law Changes Effective for 1999

Use your 1998 tax return as a guide in figuring your 1999 estimated tax, but be sure to consider the changes noted in this section. For more information on changes that may affect your 1999 estimated tax, see Pub. 553.

Modification of estimated tax safe harbor for some taxpayers. For 1999, the estimated tax safe harbor that is based on the tax shown on your 1998 tax return is 105% of that amount if you are not a farmer or a fisherman and the adjusted gross income shown on that return is more than $150,000 or, if married filing separately for 1999, more than $75,000.

Child tax credits. For 1999, the total of the child tax credit and the additional child tax credit can be as much as $500 for each qualifying child.

Student loan interest deduction. The amount you may be allowed to deduct on your tax return for interest that is paid during 1999 on a qualified student loan has been increased to $1,500.

IRA deduction restored for some people covered by retirement plans. You may be able to claim an IRA deduction for 1999 if you are covered by a retirement plan and your modified AGI is less than $41,000 if single, head of household, or married filing separately and you lived apart from your spouse for all of 1999; $61,000 if married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er).
